The Editor,
African Journal of Laboratory Medicine

Dear Editor,

Please find the attached manuscript "Global health: what does integration of national laboratory health systems and services mean in resource-limited settings? by Parsons et. al.

All authors have contributed significantly to the work and approve of its content.

The manuscript has not been published in this or in any other form (in print or electronically, including on a web site), nor accepted for publication elsewhere, nor is under consideration by another publication.

I and other authors of this manuscript have no conflicts of interest. We do not have commercial stock ownership or consultancy any of the companies reported in this manuscript.

We hope you find this useful for the readership of the African Journal of Laboratory Medicine.

Thank You

Yours truly,

John N. Nkengasong, PhD
